Administrative history / Biographical sketch

Note

Alfred Jeyaratnam Wilson was born on October 4, 1928 in Colombo, Sri Lanka, to Kanagasabay Rajaratnam Wilson and Elizabeth Ariammah Dutton. Wilson completed a B.A. in Economics and Political Science from the University of Ceylon in 1950, a Ph.D from the London School of Economics, University of London in 1956, and a DSc. (Econ.) from the University of London in 1977. In 1953, he and Suseelavathy Chelvanayakam (daughter of Samuel James Velupillai Chelvanayakam) were married in Colombo. Wilson taught political science at the University of Peradeniya in Sri Lanka from 1956 to 1972. After completing several fellowships in the UK, Canada, and the US, in 1972 he became professor of Political Science and Chairman of the Department of Political Science at the University of New Brunswick. He remained at UNB until 1994, after which he was appointed Professor Emeritus. From 1978 to 1984 Wilson also acted as an advisor to the Sri Lankan government. He and his family later moved to Toronto, where he passed away on 31 May 2000.

Wilson wrote and edited nine books on Sri Lankan politics as well as numerous essays and reviews published in academic journals. His books include: "An Introduction to Civics and Government" (1954); "Politics in Sri Lanka, 1947–1973" (1974); "Electoral Politics in an Emergent State: the Ceylon General Election of May 1970" (1975); "The Gaullist System in Asia" (1980); "The States of South Asia: Problems of National Integration: Essays in honour of W.H. Morris-Jones" (1982, editor, with Dennis Dalton); "The Break-up of Sri Lanka: The Sinhalese-Tamil Conflict" (1988); "S. J. V. Chelvanayakam and the Crisis of Sri Lankan Tamil Nationalism, 1947–1977: A Political Biography" (1994); "Sri Lankan Tamil Nationalism: Its Origins and Development in the 19th and 20th Centuries" (2000); and "The Post-Colonial States of South Asia: Democracy, Development and Identity" (2001, editor, with Amita Shastri).

Scope and content

The fonds documents A. J. Wilson's activities as an academic, historian, and political consultant and also sheds light on historical events in Sri Lanka from the period of the 1970s to the 1980s. As an avid critic and writer, the fonds covers Wilson's academic life and political writings from his professorships at the University of Peradeniya and later as Chairman of the Department of Political Science at the University of New Brunswick up until 1986. From 1978-1984, Wilson acted as vice-chairman of the Presidential Commission on Development Councils for the Sri Lankan government. The fonds also documents his involvements as an advisor to the Sri Lankan government in this role.

The fonds also contains personal and historical material on the Wilson family, including that of Wilson's father-in-law, S. J. V. Chelvanayakam, a prominent Tamil lawyer and politician. Wilson's wife, Suseelavathy (Susili) Wilson, was very much involved in his work and was a librarian at the University of New Brunswick. The fonds also includes her correspondence and professional documents.

Notes

Title notes

Immediate source of acquisition

The Wilson family moved from Sri Lanka to New Brunswick in 1972 and then to Toronto in 1995. After A. J. Wilson's passing, the records were preserved by Susili Wilson in their home. The records were then transferred to UTSC in 2018.

Subseries 012-S3-SS4: Professional writing

Date: n.d., [ca. 1950]-1999 (date of creation)

Scope and content:

Subseries includes drafts of papers and books in chronological order, unpublished material, notes and notebooks on various political and historical subjects, including Wilson's school notebooks.

In Wilson's book "The Break-up of Sri Lanka" (1988), he intended to publish his correspondence and documents relating to the Presidential Commission on Development Councils as appendices.

Therefore, the correspondence in Series 4, Sri Lanka Negotiations, is reproduced here in the Appendices files where Wilson (or his secretary) has typed hand-written letters, and made his own contextual notes and observations at the end of each letter. These Appendices were not published in the final book. Sometimes only the typed copy of the letter here exists, and not the original.
