

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO ARCHIVES

B1972-0029 GLAZEBROOK, George Parkin de Twenebrokes

Access: Open

Introduction:

George P. de T. Glazebrook, B.A. (University College), 1922, was a lecturer and associate professor of history at the U. of T. from 1924 to 1941, when he took leave from the University to join the Department of External Affairs for the duration of the war. In 1946 he returned to the University as professor of history. at the beginning of 1949 he resigned from the University to become Director of the Joint Intelligence Bureau of the Department of External Affairs. When he retired from External Affairs in 1963 he returned to the University as a special lecturer in the Department of History a post he retained until 1967.

William Ewart Maurice Aitken, B.A. (University College, 1908), M.A., 1909, was head of the department of English at Western Branch Technical School, Toronto, from 1928 to 1931, when he resigned to take up an appointment at the Normal School in the city.

/Box (file) Title Date(s)

SERIES 1: Notebook (W.E.M. Aitken)

/001 (01) Aitken, W.E.M. "Loose Leaf British History Notebook" (for use in schools) n.d. (c. 1930)

SERIES 2: Notebooks and bibliographic material (G.P. de T. Glazebrook)

(02) "European History, 19th century" (with table of contents) n.d. (1930s?)

(03) "The French Revolution" (with table of contents) n.d. (1930s?)

(04) "International Relations" (from the Peace of Paris through the mid-1920s, with table of contents) n.d. (1930s?)

/002 (01) "International Relations" (German reparations, with table of contents) n.d. (post-1937)

(02) "Documents on European History, 1870-1914" (for use in Library), mimeo. n.d. (c. 1964)