Scope and content

1948-2005

4.15 m of textual and graphic records and publications
(12 boxes, 1 framed diploma)

Personal records of Peter De Beauvoir Brock, professor of history at the University of Toronto and a pre-eminent specialist in Polish and East European history. The records include correspondence, certificates and diplomas, lecture notes, memoranda, notes for and drafts of manuscripts, and other material related to his personal and professional activities.

Arrangement: What appear to be Professor Brock's research files are filed in manila envelopes with pencilled notes on the outside. Some of these envelopes may contain lecture notes and there may also be drafts of articles, etc. There is no arrangement to them.

Access: Open

Boxes: B2008-0030/001 - /012
