Administrative history / Biographical sketch

Note

In 1964, the Centre for Reformation and Renaissance Studies (CRRS) was established by the Board of Regents to be: a research institute dedicated to the Renaissance and Reformation while having the Andrew James Bell Erasmus collection at its core, and; to develop a broader collection of reference works, texts, and bibliographical material for the period of ca. 1500-1700. The CRRS was co-publisher of the journal Renaissance and Reformation, it later began publishing the journals Early Theatre and Confraternitas, as well as five lines of books.

In 2020 the CRRS slightly altered their name to the Centre for Renaissance and Reformation Studies.

Custodial history

The records in series 4 were received by the CRRS from the Canadian Society for Renaissance Studies (CSRS), who then transferred them to the archivist at a later date.

Scope and content

Fonds consists of nine series: Annual reports, announcements of activities, programmes, projects, bulletins, 1965-2007; Committee records, 1964-2001; Correspondence/subject files, 1964-2001; Canadian

Society for Renaissance Studies, 1974-2018; Toronto Renaissance and Reformation Colloquium, 1967-1999; Renaissance and Reformation, 1964-2000; Records relating to infrastructure, 1976-2005; Records relating to programs, 1971-2010; and Records relating to library collections, 1977-2005

Series 2064-4: Canadian Society for Renaissance Studies

Creator: Canadian Society for Renaissance Studies

Date: 1971-2018 (date of creation)

Scope and content:

Series consists of records of the Seiziémistes Canadiens meetings ; the CSRS Annual General Meetings and executive meetings including minutes and agendas ; the Canadian Federation for the Humanities records ; CSRS newsletters and bulletins ; financial records ; records from the annual conference ; membership records ; correspondence ; directories ; records of the Secretary-Treasurer and the President, as well as other Renaissance associations' records.

Physical description: 1.68 m of textual records

Immediate source of acquisition:

The records were received by the Centre for Reformation and Renaissance Studies (CRRS) from the Canadian Society for Renaissance Studies (CSRS), who then transferred them to the archivist at a later date.

Arrangement:

The records sent under accession 2015.09V and 2019.10V are organized by year and cover material from 2001-2018. This differs from previous accessions which were arranged by file. The files from accession 2015.09V and 2019.10V contain the record types described above as well as additional material. The Archivist grouped all the files in this series into subseries based on their contents.
