Boxes	4–6	The following package of letters was wrapped in paper. Written in ink on the paper wrapping: This package when I found it and gave it to father after mother's death was wrapped in another paper & bore – if I remember rightly in mother's handwriting these words – “To be given to B.E.W. or else destroyed unopened.” Father said they were his love-letters to her. He suffered but evidently he had not the heart to destroy them. I found them this time without the outer covering or any record of mother's wishes or any instructions from father. The letters themselves were tied into bundles with string, wrapped in paper, and sealed. The whole package was tied with string. Written in ink on one side: “To Mrs. B. E. Walker.” Written in pencil on other side: “Sealed with a cyathophylloid July 27th 1890 (probably Zaphrentis prolifica)” (see Box 6 for paper wrapping).
